Friendship Quilters Guild February 13, 2010

Meeting called to order at 10:20 a.m.

Those without nametags paid $0.25.

Announcements:

No visitors.

Information : Treasurer's report is on the table. There is also a proposed budget.

Secretary's report is not available, as Rachel Bates

Terry Ware or Russell moved, Celisa seconded to accept the excellent, profession treasurer's report. Motion carried.

Donna Nicholson reported that we either need to pare down our expenses or sell a lot of opportunity quilt chances to make the proposed budget work. Committee chairpersons should look at their expenses and see if they can be cut. We can also do some fund raising. We will have a white elephant sale at our March meeting. Stitching hobby and sewing related only.

There will be an executive meeting on Saturday, February 27 at 10:00 a.m. at the Glen city community center (here).

Peggy has a sign up sheet for our retreat September 17-19 at Son Shine Retreat Pell City.

Monday March 13 sew day: We plan on having a barbeque plate for lunch. Committee is Carole DeGrenier, Peggy Williams, and Florence Kerr. Lunch cost will be $2.50. and Will include Barbeque sandwich, cole slaw, beans, tea, coffee. Refreshment committee will bring desserts. We need to know how many will come so we will order enough. We are getting it from Paul Manning. So far we are planning for about 36.

Sew day will be UFOs. Terry Russell will have prayer quilt materials available, also.

Terry Ware has requests a prayer quilt for Lakeside Hospice. They will raffle the quilt.

Scrappy reds and creams hour glass blocks. Margaret Rose moved, Terry Ware seconded that we do this quilt for Lakeside Hospice. Please bring red or cream fabric to donate to the prayer quilts for this project. Margaret Rose took some rail fence blocks for an adult prayer quilt.

Carole discussed baby blankets for $6.00 or 6 for $30.00 available from

Also donation of blankets for DHR, the police, etc. within the county so that we can be known in the community.

Thursday Peggy Williams and Carole DeGrenier loaded the opportunity quilt onto a frame. All are invited to Peggy Williams' home to hand quilt on Thursdays. We'll have lunch around noon. There is enough room for 8 quilters around the frame. The sooner we get this quilt done, the more time we'll have for selling chances. We plan on having a post card for selling tickets.

Discussed 9th Annual Quilt Symposium of Alabama to be held June 10-12.

That is the same weekend as our meeting, so we have scheduled a sew day for June in lieu of a meeting. Classes at the Symposium are done by nationally known teachers.

Carole mentioned we will have a craft fare later this year, so we should be planning for that.

Brownie Drummond moved, Donna Nicholson seconded that the meeting be adjourned.

Motion carried.

Fat Quarters were won by: Brenda Franklin and Florence Kerr

50/50: $10 was won by: Paige Everett.

Blocks on the month was won by: Florence Kerr and Donna Nicholson

Next month's block is Four Leaf Clover block from Quilter's Cache.com.

Terry Ware showed her Orange & BrownBlack log cabin.

Brownie Drummond showed her blue and yellow Carpenter's Star that she did at Quilting by the Bay Retreat.

Carole DeGrenier showed her Red Classic snow ball quilt that she started at our sew day last March.

Door Prizes were won by Breneda Franklin and Margaret Rose and Antoinette MacMurdo and Beth Staples.

Our Next meeting will be March 13.
