

Meeting of Friendship Quilters
October 9, 2010

President, Carole DeGrenier called the meeting to order at 10:00 a.m. with 20 members present. No visitors.

Florence Kerr led us in a prayer in lieu of an inspirational moment.

Judy Boozer moved Shelia Robertson seconded that we accept the minutes of the last meeting. Motion carried.

Donna Nicholson gave a treasurer's report. Florence Kerr moved, Vicky Morrison seconded we accept the treasurer's report. Motion carried.

Beth Staples recognized members with birthdays this month: Sally Day will be 82, Celisia Burke and Donna Crow also celebrate birthdays this month.

Nomination of Officers: Shelia passed out forms for anonymous nominations. Shelia read the duties of each office. Election of officers will be at the next meeting.

If you do not have e-mail, let Rachel Bates know and she will send information via snail-mail.

Carole told us that Debbie Swan's husband moved the filing cabinet from the recreations center to the community center so we now have it available for storage. After it is cleaned up, we will be able to keep our library in it. Carole also has arranged for the guild to have exclusive use of the pantry off the kitchen.

Donna Nicholson has a complete set of updated by-laws. Carole suggested that we have copies available for all the members, but especially new members in new members' kits.

We will have a sew days on October 28, 29, 30 here. Lunch will be provided. There is no cost. Please let Carole DeGrenier or Peggy Williams know if you will be there, so they can arrange for enough lunch for everyone. We will need to take our machines home each evening as our liability insurance does not cover theft. We also continue to sew on Mondays here as well.

Christmas party will be at Sunset Inn and Retreat in Southside on our regular meeting day. The cost is $20 per person. The guild will pay $10 for each paid up member. Guests will pay the $20. We will have an installation of officers that day.

Florence Kerr gave a report on the upcoming craft show. She has fliers available and forms to sign up for a table. She also has sign up forms for manning the opportunity quilt table and the general store. It is important for all the guild members to be involved in the show and wear their name tags.

Upcoming quilt show in Georgia Oct 14 - 16. Carole brought information cards and a booklet for anyone who is interested to look at.

$25 50/50 drawing was split by the guild and Judy Boozer.

Beth Staples and Margaret Rose won the blocks of the month.

Door prizes were won by Brenda Franklin and Vicky Morrison. They were beautiful cloth pumpkins.

Carole DeGrenier passed out instructions for caring for quilts.

Peggy Williams demonstrated the November block of the month: Lattice Square. Show and tell quilts are hanging on the wall. Shelia Robertson did a scrappy sunbonnet Sams flying kites for Project Linus. Shelia also brought a memory quilt made from a late friend's clothing.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 11:30 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Margaret Rose, Secretary.
