

February 10, 2011
Glen Community Center

Meeting called to order by President Peggy Williams.

We welcomed members and 2 guests: Ann Brennan came with Mary Casey and Rita Donahough came with Antoinette MacMurdo.

Peggy thanked Jackie Crumley for organizing refreshments and all those who brought the refreshments.

Peggy thanked Jackie White for organizing the anniversary party and sending our invitations.

Florence Kerr was thanked for bringing Nana's Workshop.

Judy Boozer was thanks for decorating and overseeing the raffle.

Shelia was thanks for our program, setting up and keeping Peggy Williams out of trouble.

Jordan was very helpful in displaying show and tell.

Terry Russell gave an inspirational reading about obedience.

The January minutes were in the Newsletter and on the Web page. The Executive board agreed to hold the minutes and treasurer's report until the March meeting.

Donna Nicholson presented the 2011 proposed budget for our consideration and to be voted on at the March meeting.

Donna Nicholson gave us information about our 2011 Opportunity Quilt and signed up members to piece various block. There is a contest to name the Opportunity Quilt.

We delivered one prayer quilt since our last meeting to Tommie Sue Goodwin, Ms. Sally Day's sister. We have several quilts in inventory. We are missing Carole DeGrenier because she had foot surgery.

Information about upcoming events is in the newsletter, but Peggy mentioned our upcoming sew-in here at Glen Community Center on February 24, 25 and 26.

In March we will have a White elephant sale. Judy Boozer explained it. Other announcements included April Spring Retreat at Sunset Inn, July Summer Retreat and Knoxville Quilt Show trip, and an Autumn Sew-in for September. Friendship Quilters Quilt Show is scheduled for November 5th and 6th.

Judy Boozer explained what is on the prize table.

Meeting adjourned for our 10th Anniversary Party.
